

Pledge to our new values

Commitment to integrity, compassion, respect and inclusion

My pledge:

As a board member of this organisation, I pledge to uphold and embody the following values in all my actions and decisions.

Integrity

We are committed to acting with honesty, transparency and to deliver what we say we will. We seek to learn and improve when things haven't gone to plan, ensuring that our actions positively impact staff, patients and communities.

Respect

We value and respect others. We build relationships and trust. We welcome ideas and different perspectives. By doing so, we contribute to a respectful and inclusive environment that benefits both patients and communities.

Compassion

We are caring and compassionate. We show understanding and kindness. We strive to improve the wellbeing of staff, patients and communities by being supportive and empathetic.

Inclusion

We create a sense of belonging where people can collaborate, bring different perspectives, feel heard and are appreciated. This creates a positive environment to deliver high performance and quality outcomes.
