

GOOD HEALTH

starts at

HOME

“When the doctor said I could go home from hospital, I was ready with clothes and transport.”

Keeping a loved one in the loop on your go-home day will help you get away sooner and with less stress.

Speak to the hospital team about how a loved one can help.

Find out more here about how good health can start at home.

